

Controller Functions

Vector Inverse Park transform

```
graph RL; A[Vector Inverse Park transform] --> B[Controller Functions];
```

The diagram consists of two rectangular blocks. The block on the right is shaded gray and contains the text 'Vector Inverse Park transform'. The block on the left is white and contains the text 'Controller Functions'. A horizontal arrow points from the right block to the left block, indicating a flow or dependency.